RE: INVITATION TO ATTEND A WORKSHOP ON DIGITAL REPOSITORIES AND WEB 2.0 TECHNOLOGIES LEARNING OPPORTUNITY (1-4 OCTOBER 2013)

Once again, the Directorate of Library Services at Muhimbili University of Health and Allied Sciences (MUHAS) Library is organizing a training workshop for non-technologists, to introduce participants to the terminology and some of the software tools that support development of institutional repositories, optimizing access to content in digital library and repository through multilingual search strategies and Web 2.0 technologies.

I am pleased to invite you to attend the workshop that will be held at Muhimbili University of Health and Allied Sciences for four days from 1st to 4th October 2013.

The Digital Repositories and web 2.0 technologies course will equip you with the skills necessary to have the current and relevant knowledge on Digital Repositories and web 2.0 technologies. The course will not only cover the use of repositories but also has practical and technical modules which will help you know the installation and management of linux and dspace software. Other components to be covered during the course include multilingual online searches, and use of web 2.0 features to optimize access of contents in repositories, such features include RSS feeds, online publishing through blogs, and google drive etc.

You are advised to pay TShs 400,000/= for citizens, and US$ 350 for non Tanzanians for the four days program to cover the tuition fee, venue, and meals (refreshments and lunch) during the day.

The registration fee can be paid in cash on arrival or can be deposited at the following bank details:

Account Name: MUHAS - Muhimbili University of Health and Allied Sciences, Tanzania, Account Number: 012105003582 Bank Name: National Bank of Commerce (NBC), Samora Branch, Swift/BIC Code SAMORA BRANCH NLCBTZT XXXXX, Bank Address: P.
